BRESLOW  STARLING
Certified Public Accountants

QUALIFIED PROFESSIONALS

Breslow Starling works regularly with foreign companies setting up operations in the United States, foreign nationals being transferred here, and with U.S. citizens working temporarily outside of the U.S. Working in a new location can be challenging, so our assistance to companies and individuals helps them quickly get acclimated. They can more easily devote their full attention to serving the company more effectively.

Our team is a proactive and experienced group of professionals who provide responsive, flexible, and personalized client service. We retain clients with competitive pricing, meticulous attention to detail, uncompromising quality and exceptional client service.

EFFICIENT, ESSENTIAL SERVICES

Breslow Starling offers clients the capabilities of a national firm with the service, attention, and focus of a smaller organization. Support begins before arrival and continues until departure. Services most in demand by U.S. expatriate and foreign national employees and their companies include:

- Planning for inbound or outbound executives
- Buying, selling or renting a U.S. or foreign residence
- Handling moving expenses and reimbursements
- Assistance with income tax withholding and payroll form filings
- Filing status determination to minimize tax liability
- Foreign earned income exclusion/utilization of foreign tax credits
- Taxes on allowances and other company-paid expenses
- FICA tax handling and application of totalization agreements
- Federal and state tax planning and tax return filing
- Estate planning, retirement planning and distribution options
- Foreign bank account reporting
