

BUSINESS AND ASSET VALUATION

BRESLOW  STARLING
Certified Public Accountants

QUALIFIED PROFESSIONALS

Determining the value of assets, properties and business equity interests is important. Whether acquiring or selling a business, or in the midst of a difficult divorce, we provide useful analysis to objectively value your assets.

Because reasonable people often differ in opinion about the value of assets, a comprehensive business valuation prepared by qualified professionals carries far more weight than casual opinion or “rules of thumb.” Breslow Starling’s knowledgeable team of Certified Valuation Analysts (CVAs) brings clarity and credibility to complex valuation issues.

EFFICIENT, ESSENTIAL SERVICES

- Valuation Engagement – We acquire a thorough understanding of your business, the competitive environment, strengths and weaknesses, work force, management team and financial status. Working in the context of the outlook for future profitability, we select the appropriate valuation methodology, tailored to your specific circumstances, and construct an analytical model. The finished product provides a complete picture of your business’s worth.
- Calculation Engagement – In a Calculation Engagement, you and the CVA agree on the valuation approaches and methods to use and the extent of procedure the analyst will perform to calculate the value of the subject company. The results are expressed as a calculated value – either as a single amount or as a range of values – that may help you make a decision regarding the possible value of an investment.
- Benchmarking Study – We provide financial statistics drawn from other businesses comparable to your own, illustrating how your business stacks up against others in your industry.
